Exercise: Affirmation Sessions

(Mini Workshop #11 - Mini Version)

During this exercise team members will verbally affirm each other, as they feel led. Anyone can be affirmed at any time during this exercise. Those doing the affirming will share memorable moments, character traits, and special events they have experienced by being around the one being affirmed.

Here are the ground rules to implement during this exercise:

Rules for the one being affirmed:

1. You must "accept" the compliments and statements being made about you (you cannot down - play them or minimize their significance).
2. You should wait to respond to all of the affirmations at once, at the very end.
3. If someone chooses to not speak about you, do not take offense to this.

Rules for the rest of the team:

1. Only make statements that are heart - felt and with pure intentions.
2. All comments should be appropriate for public knowledge.
3. Only positive, encouraging statements may be made.
4. Not everyone has to speak. You can speak more than once if you feel led to do so.
5. The worship leader is always the last person to comment; then allow the affirmed person to respond. (The length of time should be loosely controlled by the leader.)
